Relix Daniels

Web Services

10/18/2021

Midterm Project: Gaming Company

Description of the overall system

– This system is used for the services of a Gaming Company. This system provides five services, also provides five endpoints. This web services will produce the services needed to list and/or create a new member account. Also provides an inventory to a variety of games and consoles available at a store.

Data dictionary for the database

On a different speadsheet attachment

List of all available endpoints

o The data that will be required to be passed and formatted will be the data within the service folder.
o The data that will be returned is the newly created record, a record that will be retrieved through an identifier and all data listed.